Miss Kilpatrick Will Change Her Name to One With the Same Celtio Ring - Personal Notes.

Two weddings will take place in New York city in which Washington society is greatly interested, and who will be entertained by the particulars. The date is Wednesday, November 7, and the happy principals Miss Grace Sanders, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Charles W. Sanders, to Mr. John H. Macy, jr., in the Madison Avenue Baptist Church, and Miss Julia Kilpatrick, daughter of the late Gen, Judson Kilpatrick, United States army, to Lieut, William Carroll Rafferty. Secretary and Mrs. Lament hope to be present at the first ceremony, both being greatly attached to their fair young relative. The day after the weading this couple will sail for Europe The marriage of Miss Julia M. Kilpatrick and Lieut. Rafferty will take place the same afternoon at Murray Hill Hotel. Archbishop Corrigan will perform the ceremony, and the bride, who is a daughter of the late Gen. Judson Kilpatrick, will walk into the room with Gen, James Grant Wilson, president of the Genealegical Society of New York. Miss Kilpatrick, on the maternal side, is closely related to several of the best farilies of Spain. She has large, dark, lustrous eyes, with blonde complexion and hair. She will wear a white satin sown trimmed. She will wear a white satin gown trimmed fully with duchesse lace, and a tuile veil caught with a coronet of orange blossoms. She will be attended by her pretty sister. Miss Laura Delphine Kilpatrick, who will be her maid of honor, and Miss Elizabeth Carroll Rafferty, the bridegroom's sister; Miss Maude Fortescue and Miss May Wilson, Gen. Wilson's daughter, as bridesmaids. They will all be attired in rose crepe and plaited chiffion, and will carry pink roses. Lieut. W. Laster of the first artillery will be the best man, and Lieuts. W. Chamberlin, ordnance corps; C. Peck and A. Torley of the first artillery the ushers, Lieut. W. Carroll Rafferty graduated from West Point in 1880, where he went from Chicago, and is extremely popwill wear a white satin gown trimmed Hand-knit Boottees, 121/2c. went from Chicago, and is extremely popular with his brother officers. The marriage, on the coming Wednesday, of Mr. Thomas Ewing, jr., son of Gen. and Mrs. Thomas Ewing, formerly of this city and now of New York, to Miss Anna Philips Cochran, will take place at noon in St. John's Church, Yonkers, N. Y., which is to be trimmed with white roses, chrysanthemoms and paims. It is to be a white wedding, and the maid of honor and bridesmaids will be attired in ribbed silk of this hee. ruffled with chiffon and lace. Mr. hue, ruffled with chiffon and lace. Mr. William C. Ewing will be his brother's best man, and among the ushers will be the groom's cousin, Mr. Tecumsch Sherman. A point of interest lies in the fact that Mr. and Mrs. William F. Cochran, the bride's parents, were married in the same church, and that Rev. Washington Rodman of As-toria, who performed the ceremony at that time, will pronounce the benediction. Mr. and Mrs. Cochran, who reside in New York, have a beautiful summer residence at Yonkers—Duncraggen—where the wedding breakfast and reception will be given. Baron Kummer of the German embassy, who is now in New York, salls next Saturday for Gernary, having just received the news of his mother's death.

UNION MISSION ANNIVERSARY.

Largely Attended Meetings and Mucl Enthusiasm Manifested. The celebration of the ninth anniversary of the organization of the Central Union Mission was observed yesterday with a good deal of enthusiasm. There was a largely attended meeting in the afternoon in the auditorium of the mission, which was addressed by pastors of the city churches. A testimonial service was held. which was participated in by a number of the converts.

Last evening a meeting was held in the New York Avenue Church, which was participated in by a large audience. Mr. N. A. Robbins of the board of directors presided and the singing was conducted by George W. Havell, the musical director of the mission, who was assisted by the mission orchestra. The singing was energetic and inspiring, and there were testimonies from converts and the other features of the regu-lar meetings of the mission. The needs and purposes of the mission were forcibly presented by Rev. E. B. Bailey. He spoke of the success which had crowned the efforts nade in the past, and especially of the substantial financial support which had been received. He said that it had been suggested to him by a number of eminent evangelists that the mission be extended beyond Washington and branches established in adjoining cities. He said that they were koking forward to mission extension. He was confident that when the time comes the money needed would be available. In the meantime, however, he said that there is money watted for carry. purposes of the mission were forcibly presaid that there is money wanted for carry-ing on the local work during the coming season.
